

Bluff of Bolshevik Sympathizers Is Called by General

ARCHANGEL, Thursday, April 4. (By the Associated Press)—General Marushevsky, commander of the Russian anti-Bolshevik forces in northern Russia, started Archangel today with an unusual proclamation intended to call the bluff of Bolshevik sympathizers in this territory. The general offered them a choice of safe conduct to the Bolshevik lines up to April 10 on written application with the alternative of trial by military court if found within the military zone after April 10. The proclamation says in part: "I consider it my duty to expel out of the territory occupied by the army all persons whose presence is undesirable. I consider that the Bolsheviks and their agents and all adherents of the Bolshevik cause are such persons. Such persons still living in the zone entrusted to me will be expelled systematically, being sent to their beloved country of the people's commissaries, the soviet land where all their ideas such as 'soviet comradeship and abundant food' and hope the benevolence and other Bolshevik things become true."

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with indigestion, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Anti-Trust Laws to Be Reconsidered By Commission

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Reconsideration by congress of all anti-trust legislation is recommended by the chamber of commerce of the United States as the result of a referendum vote of its affiliated trade and commercial organizations. Complete returns from the referendum, made public today, show that the membership voted in favor of all four proposals advanced by a special committee which studied the subject.

The proposals follow: Congress should be asked immediately to consider the present situation of all statutes constituting our anti-trust regulation.

In consideration of existing anti-trust legislation there should be formulation of standards of general business conduct to be administered by a supervisory body.

An enlarged federal trade commission should be made the supervisory body.

In view of the importance of the functions of the trade commission as they would exist the membership of the federal trade commission should be increased to nine.

The subject of anti-trust legislation would be taken at the seventh annual meeting of the chamber to be held at St. Louis April 28 to May 1.

Memorial Held In Honor of American Forces

LONDON, April 4.—The memorial service in honor of the American army and navy was held in London today. The service opened with the hymn "O God our help in ages past," followed by special prayers by the Rt. Rev. H. E. Ryle, dean of Westminster, who, in an address said:

"Let us unite in thanking God for these, our brothers of the great American republic, who have laid down their lives in a sacred and righteous cause. Their deaths are sealed by an unwritten, but inviolable covenant, our common brotherhood. Their deaths have laid enduring foundations upon the hopes of the world for a future peace."

"For their sakes we raise this day our proud thanksgiving in this great abbey which enshrines the illustrious dust of English-speaking peoples. Let us render humble and joyful praise to Almighty God that in response to the clarion call of freedom and justice the two commonwealths have not divided, nor have the brothers of America laid down their lives in vain."

"May America and Great Britain go forward charged with this privilege of the common stewardship of the liberties of mankind."

The Battle Hymn of the Republic and the American and British national anthems were sung and while the congregation was still standing the plaintive notes of a bugle in some far-off recess of the abbey sounded tones. Among those present were Ambassador and Mrs. Davis, Consul-General and Mrs. Skinner, Major-General Biddle, Rear Admiral Robinson, the staffs of the American embassy and the American consulate-general and representatives of the British war, navy and air offices. Queen Mother Alexandra was represented by the Marquis of Cambridge and King George by his A. D. C., Colonel Burt.

THE PAIGE CAR

HOLDS CONFIDENCE

Manager Harry Knowlden of the Knowlden Auto company is very much pleased with his new consignment of Paige cars. He states that in the future he will be able to more nearly meet the demand for the Paige car but that it will be quite out of the question, under the jammed condition of the manufacturing plant, to fill all the orders that may be taken in the Ogden district on short notice.

"As a utility and beauty car too much cannot be said of the Paige," says Mr. Knowlden, "and I do not make the statement in the spirit of boasting. The Paige shows its value in its performance and through its performance the confidence of the people of the country and, you know, that the good will of the people means a great deal, both as to the kind of car the Paige company is putting out and also as to the square dealing of the company."

"The greatest single asset of the Paige company is the good will of the American people, the very positive friendship of the nation. The car itself has done much toward gaining this friendship and it will continue to be a drawing card in this direction for it is going to hold up to its enviable standard in every model and design. After all is said and done, the true test of any manufactured product is its ability to make and keep friends. Spectacular sales effort may create a temporary illusion of success for even an inferior commodity, but the good sense and discernment of the American public will always prevail."

"I take very great pleasure in showing the Paige car to interested parties and I am certain that a careful inspection on the part of anyone will clearly demonstrate the superiority of the car."
